“Elder Law Options” Program Coming to Jackson Library

JACKSON – The Jackson Branch of the Ocean County Library will host “Elder Law Options” 6 to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 10, 2 Jackson Drive.

There is a lot of information regarding legal and health care options for seniors and it can be difficult to make the best decision for one’s circumstance.

Carl Archer, Elder Law Attorney, and Cathy Benedetti, Vice President and Director of Nursing at Hibernian Home Care, will discuss the legal and health options that are available for seniors.

Registration is required for this free program. To register, call 732-928-4400 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
