Free U.S. Citizenship Preparation Classes

LAKWOOD – The Lakewood Branch of the Ocean County Library will host a free, seven-session class to help prepare people planning to take the test for U.S. citizenship naturalization.

The class will be held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesdays, Apr. 11, 18, 25, May 2, 9, 16, 23.

The class will cover all topics on the test for U.S. citizenship, including civics and American History. It will also offer practice exercises for English reading and written vocabulary.

This program is for adults 18 years and older who have lawful and continuous residency in the United States for a minimum of five years or three years if married to a citizen. Those attending should have been physically present in the United States for 30 months with at least three months living in the same state or district.

The citizenship test will not be administered as part of the class.

The branch is located at 301 Lexington Ave.

Registration is required due to limited class size. To register or for more information, contact Librarian Richard Potter at 732-363-1435, ext. 2100.
