“All About Autism” Support Group Meeting in May

JACKSON – The Jackson Branch of the Ocean County Library will host “All About Autism: A Discussion and Support Group for Caretakers” 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 30, 2 Jackson Drive.

The support group is now meeting on this new date and time.

“All About Autism” is a discussion and support group for those whose lives are affected by autism. Attendees can share information, exchange ideas, and support one another.

Teen volunteers will run supervised activities for children 12 years old or younger. Attendees should advise when registering whether they will bring children.

Registration is required for this free event. To register or for more information, visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events or call Librarian Wendi Smolowitz 732-928-4400, ext. 4.
